amar é mudar a alma de casa by Mario Quintana read by Eduardo Valagao

To love is to change the soul of home,
it is to have our thoughts in the other.

To love is to have a heart that burns, to love is to have a nurturing life in your life.

To love is to have joy that overflows,
to love is to feel yourself in the firmament.
love is changing the soul of home,
is to have our thoughts in others.

Love is what supports,
is having commitment.
Love is flying without wings,
and because love is acceptance,
to love is to change the soul of home.
