The Vows

HYMN

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?

And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold:
Bring me my arrows of desire:
Bring me my spear: O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire.

I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

The Rings

Scottish Handfasting

Susan Bowie and Vonney Collard

A handfasting ceremony is a unity ritual, much like exchanging wedding rings. Handfasting represents, quite literally, the binding of two people who are in love and committed to spending their lives together. It involves the wrapping of cord, ribbon or cloth around the hands as a visual demonstration of the union in marriage. The knot or knots that are then created symbolise the binding of Amanda and Thomas' union.
