When the Saints Go Marching In by Louis Armstrong

Welcome

Hymn

1. The Lord is my Shepard, I'll not want;
 He makes me down to lie
 In pastures green; He leadeth me
 The quiet waters by
2. My soul He doth restore again,
 And me to walk doth make
 Within the paths of righteousness,
 E'en for His own name's sake
3. Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
 Yet will I fear no ill;
 For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
 And staff me comfort still.
4. Goodness and mercy all my life
 Shall surely follow me;
 And in God's house forevermore,
 My dwelling place shall be

I'll See You In My Dreams by Bruce Springsteen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not in to temptation; but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever Amen.

Farewell and Cimmittal

Poem: He is Gone by David Harkins

You can shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what he'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
