Eulogy by Elaine

We all knew Frank as an incredibly selfless and generous man. He was a dedicated husband to his darling wife Jan and a loving father to his children. He made sure that both his children's and grandchildren's childhoods were always filled with fun and laughter and he always put family first, never failing to provide for them. Frank had a brilliant sense of humour and could always be counted on to make everyone around him laugh. We all have very special memories of Frank and he leaves a hole in our hearts that can never be filled. We are grateful for the time we had with him and he will live on in our hearts.

Committal of Ashes

Words of Committal

Frank, as we share this moment together, it is with love and unity that we acknowledge what you brought to each of the lives here today and therefore what is now missing in your physical absence. There can be no doubt that there have been many tears shed and many hearts broken, but we also know that an energy as vibrant and loving as yours cannot help but remain in the hearts of all those who love you. It will be this that drives us on, until the time comes for us to meet once more. Until that day Frank, your ability to shine in the darkest of moments shall continue to light our way. You will never be forgotten Frank, but it is now time for you to be with your darling Jan, Vince and Mum once more.

Forever in our hearts.

Never to be forgotten.
