Welcome and introduction

Poem read by Chloe 'My Grandad Ken'

' In Essex there lived a man named Ken,
A Liverpool fan, he cheered for them.

Grandad Ken, with a love for his allotment, Kind and caring, never a moment.

But don't be fooled by his gentle ways, For grandad Ken had a tongue that would graze.

Insults and banter, he never held back, Especially when it came to a biscuit snack.

With a twinkle in his eye, he'd rile you up, But deep down he had a heart full of love. A true character, with stories to tell, Grandad Ken our own little rebel.

Though he may be gone, his memory lives on in the jokes the told and the battles won.

A Liverpool fan in Essex land,
Grandad Ken, forever in our hearts he'll stand.'

Memories of Ken - given by Sally, Keith and Graeme.

Reflective music

'Abide with me'

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide
The darkness deepens Lord, with me abide
When other helpers fail and comforts flee
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away
Change and decay in all around I see
O Thou who changest not, abide with me

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness
Where is death's sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee
In life, in death, o Lord, abide with me
Abide with me, abide with me

Farewell and committal
