'DAD'S STORY'

Written & Read by Lauren

There's so much I could say dad and it's hard to know where to start
So I will just go from the beginning and from the bottom of my heart

You were born many moons ago as Michael Norman Stanley B
To Gracie and Stanley and you were a little team of three

A family business of publishers and East London was your home
A happy early life you lived without a tv or a phone

You were a British Champion diver and dove from great heights without fear
But polio sadly infected you and cost you an Olympic career

You were in hospital for two years with death in plain sight
Until Christmas Eve when you suddenly starting singing Silent Night

You went through grammar school great at maths and your 123
Then you worked in London before taking over GIB

You then met lovely mum, Annie as she's known
You saw her from a friend's window in leather trousers that she owned

From that very moment, the rest they say is history
Married you became but your brown wedding suit is still a mystery
