ARRIVAL OF THE BRIDE

WELCOME

Rev. Liza Wortelhock

HYMN

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy,
whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy:

Be there at our waking, and give us,
we pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
whose strong hands were skilled at the
plane and the lathe:

Be there at our labors, and give us, we
pray,
your strength in our hearts, Lord, at
the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace: Be there at our homing, and give us,

we pray,
your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

Tell out, my soul the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by;
proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
the hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure:
tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
to children's children and for evermore.

FINAL BLESSING

DEPARTURE OF THE BRIDE AND GROOM

The only dream worth having is to dream that you will live while you are alive, and die only when you are dead. To love, to be loved. To never forget your own insignificance. To never get used to the unspeakable violence and vulgar disparity of the life around you. To seek joy in the saddest places. To pursue beauty to its lair. To never simplify what is complicated or complicate what is simple. To respect strength, never power. Above all to watch. To try and understand. To never look away. And never, never to forget.
