My dwelling place shall be.

POEM READING

'The Art of Marriage' by Wilferd A. Peterson

The little things are the big things. It is never being too old to hold hands. It is remembering to say "I love you" at least once a day.

*It is never going to sleep angry.
It is at no time taking the other for granted;
the courtship should not end with the honeymoon,
it should continue through all the years.*

*It is speaking words of appreciation and demonstrating gratitude in thoughtful ways.
It is not expecting the husband to wear a halo or the wife to have wings of an angel.*

*It is not looking for perfection in each other.
It is cultivating flexibility, patience, understanding and a sense of humor.*

*It is having the capacity to forgive and forget.
It is giving each other an atmosphere in which each can grow.*

*It is finding room for the things of the spirit.
It is a common search for the good and the beautiful. It is establishing a relationship in which the independence is equal, dependence is mutual and the obligation is reciprocal.*

It is not only marrying the right partner, it is being the right partner.

THE PRAYERS FOR THE MARRIAGE

All:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name,
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven,
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory,
For ever and ever
AMEN

HYMN

We pledge to one another,
before the Lord above,
entire and whole and perfect,
this union of our love —
a love that will be patient,
a love that will be wise,
that will not twist with envy,
nor lose itself in lies;
a love that will not falter,
a love to hold us fast,
and bind us to each other as long as life shall last.
