WALK WITH ME

Walk with me, oh my Lord, through the darkest night and brightest day. Be at my side, oh Lord, hold my hand and guide me on my way.

Sometimes the road seems long, my energy is spent. Then, Lord, I think of You and I am given strength.

Stones often bar my path and there are times I fall, but You are always there to help me when I call.

Just as You calmed the wind and walked upon the sea, conquer, my living Lord, the storms that threaten me.

Help me to pierce the mists that cloud my heart and mind, so that I shall not fear the steepest mountain-side.

As once You helped the lame and gave sight to the blind, help me when I'm downcast to hold my head up high.

LORD OF THE DANCE

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth,
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

REFRAIN: Dance, then, wherever you may be;
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he.
And I'll lead you all wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee,
But they would not dance and they would not follow me;
I danced for the fishermen, for James and John;
They came to me and the dance went on. REFRAIN

I danced on the Sabbath when I cured the lame,
The holy people said it was a shame;
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high;
And they left me there on a cross to die. REFRAIN

I danced on a Friday and the sky turned black;
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back;
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone,
But I am the dance and I still go on. REFRAIN

They cut me down and I leapt up high,
I am the life that'll never, never die;
I'll live in you if you'll live in me;
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he. REFRAIN
