Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Morning has Broken

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

Sweet the rains new fall, sunlit from Heaven
Like the first dewfall on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden
Sprung in completeness where His feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning
Born of the one light, Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise every morning
God's recreation of the new day.

*If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me, Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
Lisa xxx*

*Ann was quiet and had a lovely smile
That seemed to linger for awhile.
Her daughter and her grandchildren were her pride and joy, she was lucky they had a girl and boy.
Children's classes, the needy too,
she did her bit with the many friends she knew.
She'd cared for three dogs, two brown one black,
who loved her dearly and she loved them back.
In her residential home she rested, well cared for but her health was tested.
Our visits to her gave our spirits a lift, giving love and happiness was her gift.
Talking of the years gone by brought a sparkle to her eye.
We know that she'll be looking down at us from the sky.
From her loving Charles*
