Prayer

Heavenly Father,

We come before you with heavy hearts,

Grieving the loss of one so young.

Though our hearts are broken,

We trust that you hold them now in your loving arms,

Free from pain and suffering.

Lord, grant us peace in this time of sorrow.

Comfort us with your presence,

Knowing that you are with us in our mourning.

Wrap your arms around this family, friends, and community,

And give them strength to carry on.

We ask you to guide the soul of our dear one into eternal rest,

Surrounded by your eternal light.

May they find peace, joy, and love in your kingdom,

Where no tears are shed, and every wound is healed.

AMEN

Poem of a gentle soul

Underneath a silver moon,
With paws beside, soft purring near,
You journeyed on without a fear.

The cats you loved still linger here,
Their whispers carried in the air,
Their soft, warm fur, their watchful eyes,
Now chase you through the endless skies.

In every meow, in every purr,
Your spirit's felt, a soft, sweet blur,
A love that never fades away,
Though you are gone, you're here to stay.

Your heart was kind, your laughter bright, Now stars will hold you through the night,
But in the sun, in every breeze,
Your memory will never cease.

So rest, dear Samia, in peace, in grace,
With feline angels by your place,
We'll cherish you, though you're apart,
You'll always live within our heart.

Loving Farewell
