POEM

"Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep"
Mary Elizabeth Frye

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.*

*Do not stand at my grave and mourn.
I am the dew-flecked grass at dawn.
Where tranquil oceans meet the land
I am the footprints in the sand
To guide you through the weary day.
I am still here; I'll always stay.*

*When you wake up to morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there; I did not die.*

A TRIBUTE TO TINA
Memories from her Family and Friends

SOME SPECIAL WORDS
From Tina's Sister, Vanessa

POEM

"Legacy of Love"
Anonymous

*A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stonger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife, or sister or mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peaace, you've eaarned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.*

MUSIC FOR REFLECTION

"I'll See You Again"
Westlife

THE COMMITTAL

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from the evil one.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*
