POEM

'THE FALLEN LIMB'

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me".*

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

*The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.*

*My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*

PRAYER

KEL MALEH RACHAMIM

(memorial prayer of mercy)

God, full of mercy, who dwells in the heights, provide a sure rest upon the Divine Presence's wings, within the range of the holy, pure and glorious, whose shining resemble the sky's, to the soul of Anita, daughter of Mark for a charity was given to the memory of her soul.

*Therefore, the Master of Mercy will protect her forever, from behind the hiding of his wings, and will tie her soul with the rope of life. The Everlasting is her heritage, and her shall rest peacefully upon her lying place, and let us say:
Amen.*
