BLESSING & DISMISSAL

The Peace of Wild Things

by Wendell Berry

*When despair for the world grows in me
and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.*

*I come into the peace of wild things
who do not tax their lives with forethought
of grief. I come into the presence of still water.*

*And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.*

APPRECIATION

The family would like to thank you all for your kind support during this time of sadness.

Love you GT
