Ricky's Life

A eulogy

A Poem Gone but not forgotten

by Kaely

Don't think of him as gone away
His journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.

And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And he was loved so much.

Tributes for Ricky

Johnny Flynn Lyrics from the Detectorist
A tribute to a metal detectorist

Will you search through the loamy earth for me
Climb through the brier and bramble
I'll be your treasure

I felt the touch of the kings and the breath of the wind
I knew the call of all the song birds
They sang all the wrong words
I'm waiting for you
I'm waiting for you

Will you swim through the briny sea for me
Roll along the ocean's floor
I'll be your treasure

I'm with the ghost of the men who can never sing again
There's a place, follow me
Where a love lost at sea
Is waiting for you
Is waiting for you
