

Tributes to
Mrs Alice Titilayo Esho

21st August 1943 - 3rd October 2024

My mother, (Alias my 2-in-1, Mommie dearest, AT Esho)

Few ways I often described my mother, there were very special reasons for each of those names.

My 2-in-1, as she served as both my mother and my father in my life. My mum brought us up as a single mother and would never accept that I also looked at her as the father figure in my life.

Mommie dearest..because she was my dearest mother who with her calm nature and quiet persona, would still get her point across to me even when I did not want to hear it but knew she was right.

Mummy, a lot of words have been used to describe you, hardworking, quiet, strong..but the most common word has been "Peaceful". That was my mother, a peaceful woman.

We thank God for your life and my peace comes from the fact that you are no longer in pain but truly at peace with the lord. Please know that our memories of you will live on forever.

I am especially thankful to God for the time you got to spend with your grandchildren, enjoying their presence and love in your life as that was your joy, spoiling them rotten. I am glad they were also there for you when your health deteriorated.

Mummy, my wish for you always, through your life and especially now, has been for you to enjoy the peace you deserve. Through the good and hard times of your life, you still always projected that peaceful mindset, May the good lord allow that peace to remain with you always. I love you mummy, my 2 in 1, God bless you, peace be upon you as you sleep now.

From your daughter, Foluke Emovon (nee Esho)
