WELCOME & OPENING PRAYERS

by Reverend Joy Albone

DEAR PAM HARRIS

With inspiration from WS Graham

This is only a note
To say how sorry I am
You died. You will realise
What a position it puts
Me in. I couldn't really
Have died for you if so
I were inclined. The pink
Roses here behind the wall
Outside your house
Nodding with me, standing
Laughing with you.

Anyway how are things?
Are you still somewhere
With your brown eyes
And twitching smile
Your pink hat walking
Across a place? Or am
I greedy to make you up
Again out of memory?
Are you there at all?
I would like to think
You were all right
And not worried about
Us all
And not unhappy or bored.

Speaking to you and not
Knowing if you are there
Is not too difficult.
My words are used to that.
Do you want anything?
Where shall I send something?
Tea, custard, rich tea biscuits
Made by McVities?

Or shall I send a kind
Of news of no time
Leaning against the wall
Outside your house.

Pam, I would be obliged
If you would scout things out
For me. Although I am not
Just ready to start out.
I am trying to be better
So I can join you,
Which will make you smile
Under your pink hat.

I know, I'll make a symbol
Of the roses behind the wall:
It is because they know you.

BLESSING

May road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sunshine warm upon your face.
May the rains fall upon your fields.
And until we meet again.
May God hold you in the hollow of His hand.

FINAL PRAYER & BLESSING

A FAREWELL

By Charles Kingsley

Be good, sweet maid, and let who will be clever;
Do noble things, not dream them, all day long:
And so make life, and death, and that vast for-ever
One grand, sweet song.

The family would like to thank you all for your kind support.

Please join us to celebrate Pam with her favourite meal of fish & chips and buckets of tea.
