Poem from the family

Gone, Not Forgotten

By Ellen Brenneman

Don't think of him as gone away-his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets-this earth is only one. . .

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched, for nothing loved is ever lost-and he was loved so much

Poem

I'll Be There

Author Unknown

*There was no time to say goodbye
But this I ask -- please do not cry Remember me as you think best
The happy time - forget the rest.
Look for me and I'll be there
And you will find me everywhere
In the gentle touch of breeze
That cools the skin or swirls the leaves.
In the scent and colour of flowers
That wave to me such happy hours
On sunny days under sunny skies of blue Just think of me, I'll be with you.
In winter when there's cloud or mist
The rain will give you my kiss
As wood smoke lingers in the air
Look for me and I'll be there.
Where seagulls cry above the sea
And surf rolls in so endlessly Among towering trees that soar above
In all these things that I once loved
Look for me and I'll be there You'll feel my presence everywhere.*
