THE LIFE OF

George Spence

5TH JUNE 1942 - 4TH NOVEMBER 2024

The Hurlet Crematorium
Tuesday 26th November at 10am

Service conducted by Stella McCulloch

Through the war went on in jungles, amid rocks and desert sands,
You could always find a "Redcap" waiting there to lend a hand,
In the deepest, densest jungles, on the beach of alien shores,
We may each of us remember,
fallen comrades of the corps,
Now as we're gathered here together,
and the sad, sad bugle calls,
Once again, we're reunited.
As the morning silence falls.

EXEMPLO DUCMUS

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me - by David M. Romano

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

The family would like to thank you all for your kindness and support during this time of sadness.

You are warmly invited to The Redhurst Hotel for refreshments
